

SEP 2 9 1965

Club Site Offer To Newspaper Women Dissolved

NEW YORK (AP)—A federal judge gave his approval yesterday, with the agreement of both sides, to termination of a contract between the Women's National Press Club and the American Newspaperwomen's Club and Webb & Knapp Inc.

Webb & Knapp is a bankrupt realty concern which gave the women's organizations the right to use a penthouse in the projected L'Enfant Plaza development in Washington, D.C.

The contract was made in May, 1959 and gave the clubs the privilege of using the penthouse for up to 50 years for $1 per year. The penthouse premises plan included a clubroom and bar and dining facilities.

However, earlier this month Webb & Knapp's leasehold in the development was sold to a group headed by David Rockefeller and Gen. Elwood R. Quesada, and a trustee for the realty firm moved to dissolve the women's clubs agreement.

In court yesterday, Donald Sisskind, Webb & Knapp attorney, told Judge Wilfred Feinberg that the women's clubs had agreed to terminate the contract and had sent him telegrams to that effect. Feinberg then signed the order.